

EUROPEAN REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT FUND

BalticBiomass4Value

Virtual session of two Interreg Baltic Sea Region projects:

Discovering good practice examples of industrial symbiosis and bio-based business models

26 May 2021

10:00 AM – 12:00 PM (EEST)

AGENDA

10:00 – 10:05	Opening remarks Setting the scene, overall information about the virtual session
10:05 – 10:15	Keynote speech Jukka Teräs Nordic expert in industrial engineering and management, specialised in regional development, innovation environments, innovation promotion, technology transfer, issues related to non-metropolitan regions
10:15 – 10:20	Introduction to the “BIS – Baltic Industrial Symbiosis” project Susanne Boesen Project manager at Symbiosis Center Denmark
10:20 – 10:35	Tools helping new actors in developing industrial symbiosis Key policy framework, role of SMEs and municipalities, mapping facilitator’s toolbox
10:35 – 11:00	Good practice examples of industrial symbiosis in the Nordic countries Examples of industrial symbiosis in Kalundborg (Denmark), Paper Province and Sotenäs (Sweden)
11:00 – 11:10	How to proceed, what sort of assistance can the BIS project offer for Baltic actors Per Erik Sørås Senior advisor at Trøndelag County Council (Norway)
11:10 – 11:15	Introduction to the “BalticBiomass4Value” project Virginija Kargytė Project manager at Vytautas Magnus University (Lithuania)
11:15 – 11:35	Bio-based business models for the replacement of fossil fuels with bio-based fuels and for the novel uses of bio-based materials for non-energy purposes Henrik Barth Assistant professor in industrial management at the Centre for Innovation, Entrepreneurship and Learning Research of Halmstad University (Sweden)
11:35 – 11:55	Good practice examples of bio-based business models in the Baltic Sea area Examples of 3B Bioenergie (German producer of organic fertiliser from the treatment of digestate) and Aloja-Starkelsen (Latvian producer of organic starch and plant-based products for home and industrial application)
11:55 – 12:00	Closing remarks Summarising of main ideas and follow-up opportunities